I love Italian food – make sure it's veggie though!

I've worked within distribution and logistics for 20 years. I've worked for many household names such as: ASDA; Argos; Blacks Leisure Group; TK Maxx; and Ocado. I now work for Hachette UK, heading up Operations and Logistics for this amazing publisher.

I once learned to fly a plane!

I am father to two amazing girls who, I'm glad to say; run rings around me (they learned from their Mother)!

I have travelled extensively throughout South East Asia and lived and worked in Australia
