I am mum to four fabulous and very untidy teenagers.

I qualified as a scuba diver when on a gap year travelling around Australia.

I eat everything! I particularly enjoy moules and frites. It can get very messy!

A treasured book is like wrapping yourself up in a blanket and being all cosy.

I first read one of my favourites, 'A Tale of Two Cities' by Charles Dickens when I was 17 on holiday – I remember not wanting to put it down.

I love being in the teaching profession. Being headteacher of St Mary's is a great privilege.
