

Hannah Whittaker

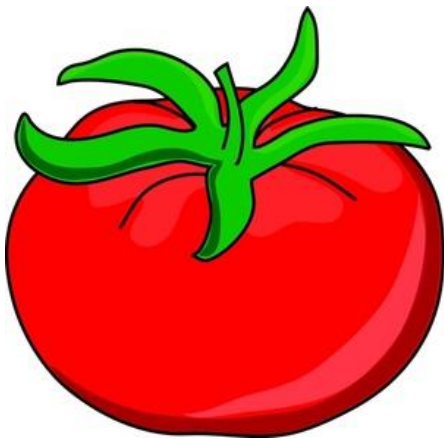

I grew up by the sea and miss daily walks on the beach; every holiday must include a seaside visit and a boat trip if possible. Despite my love of sea and sand, I hate seafood

I'm addicted to reading and coffee. I would like to find an extra hour in the day for dedicated 'book and coffee time'

I love going on little outdoor adventures with my husband and children

I love tomatoes.....!

I am a teacher of English & Media Studies at secondary school level but I am currently enjoying time at home with my children
