

David Exham

As the proud possessor of about 5000 books, I have far too many favourites to list!

My favourite food is seafood and pasta - yummy!

During my working career I was a maths teacher. I was, in turn, Head of Department, boarding Housemaster, Deputy Head, and Headmaster at Independent Boarding Schools.

I am lay chaplain to the Witney Air Training Squadron.

I have been a Church of England Reader, now called a Licensed Lay Minister, since 1970. I am part of the Ministry Team in the Parish of Witney.

I take assemblies at St Mary's, The Batt and Hailey schools.

I have been a governor at a number of schools, most recently Marlborough School, Woodstock.
